

Dan Overall
Manitoba Chambers of Commerce

Born and raised in Winnipeg, Dan graduated with honours from the University Manitoba of Law School in 1988. He practiced law in Manitoba, with an emphasis on litigation, until 1999.

Since 1997 Dan has been the Director of Policy and Communications for the Manitoba Chambers of Commerce. In that capacity Dan drafts and oversees the MCC's policy positions. He has made submissions to both the federal and provincial levels of government and has represented the MCC on a wide array of committees including the Trade Advisory Group, the President's Advisory Council For Literacy and the Winnipeg and Region Cluster Steering Committee.

Dan is editor-in-chief and a contributing writer for the Manitoba Focus, the Manitoba Chambers' news magazine; a videographer and editor for MCCTV and hosts the Manitoba's Cûl Companies Radio show. He also writes articles for the MCC Website and the Winnipeg Free Press.
