

Chris Penner, Biologist - Conservation Programs Specialist

Chris Penner is a Native Plant Solutions team member working as a plant ecologist and planting designer and manages several projects. Chris' field experience includes avian and floristic work in the boreal forest and native grasslands of the Northern Great Plains. He completed a Master of Natural Resources Management (MNRM) which dealt with the impacts of limited timber harvesting in a forested riparian buffer.